Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward Looking Statements

This communication contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the federal securities laws, including Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. In this context, forward-looking statements often address expected future business and financial performance and financial condition, and often contain words such as “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” “seek,” “see,” “will,” “would,” “target,” similar expressions, and variations or negatives of these words. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about the potential timing or consummation of the proposed Merger Transaction or the anticipated benefits thereof, including, without limitation, future financial and operating results. The Company cautions readers that these and other forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future results and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that may cause such a difference include, but are not limited to risks and uncertainties related to (i) the risk that a condition to closing of the Merger Transaction may not be satisfied, (ii) the ability of the Company and RareGen to integrate their businesses successfully and to achieve anticipated cost savings and other synergies, (iii) the possibility that other anticipated benefits of the proposed Merger Transaction will not be realized, including without limitation, anticipated revenues, expenses, earnings and other financial results, and growth and expansion of the new combined company’s operations, and the anticipated tax treatment, (iv) potential litigation relating to the proposed Merger Transaction that has and could be instituted against the Company, RareGen or their respective officers or directors, (v) possible disruptions from the proposed Merger Transaction that could harm the Company’s or RareGen’s business, including current plans and operations, (vi) the ability of the Company or RareGen to retain, attract and hire key personnel, (vii) potential adverse reactions or changes to relationships with employees, customers, suppliers, licensees, collaborators, business partners or other parties resulting from the announcement or completion of the Merger Transaction, (viii) potential business uncertainty, including changes to existing business relationships, during the pendency of the Merger Transaction that could affect the Company’s and/or RareGen’s financial performance, (ix) certain restrictions during the pendency of the Merger Transaction that may impact the Company’s or RareGen’s ability to pursue certain business opportunities or strategic transactions, (x) continued availability of capital and financing and rating agency actions, (xi) legislative, regulatory and economic developments and (xii) unpredictability and severity of catastrophic events, including, but not limited to, global pandemics such as coronavirus, acts of terrorism or outbreak of war or hostilities, as well as management’s response to any of the aforementioned factors. These risks, as well as other risks associated with the proposed Merger Transaction, as more fully discussed in the proxy statement/prospectus in connection with the proposed Merger Transaction which was declared effective on September 16, 2020, as subsequently supplemented. While the list of factors presented here is, and the list of factors to be presented in the registration statement on Form S-4 are, considered representative, no such list should be considered to be a complete statement of all potential risks and uncertainties. Unlisted factors may present significant additional obstacles to the realization of forward-looking statements. Consequences of material differences in results as compared with those anticipated in the forward-looking statements could include, among other things, business disruption, operational problems, financial loss, legal liability to third parties and similar risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Company’s or RareGen’s consolidated financial condition, results of operations, credit rating or liquidity. Neither the Company nor RareGen assumes any obligation to provide revisions or updates to any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise, should circumstances change, except as otherwise required by securities and other applicable laws.

No Offer or Solicitation

This communication is not intended to and shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote of approval, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. No offer of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of Section 10 of the Securities Act.

Important Information About the Transaction and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed Merger Transaction, the Company and HoldCo have filed documents with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Corporation (the "SEC"), including the filing by HoldCo of a registration statement on Form S-4, which was declared effective on September 16, 2020, and a final proxy statement/prospectus (including the supplements thereto), and the Company mailed a proxy statement regarding the proposed Merger Transaction to its stockholders that also constitutes a prospectus of the Company. This document is not a substitute for the proxy statement/prospectus or registration statement or any other document which the Company or Liquidia Corporation have filed with the SEC. Investors and security holders of the Company and RareGen are urged to read the registration statement, the proxy statement/prospectus and any other relevant documents, as well as any amendments or supplements to these documents, carefully and in their entirety because they will contain important information. Investors and security holders may obtain free copies of the registration statement and the proxy statement/prospectus and other documents filed with the SEC by the Company through the website maintained by the SEC at www.sec.gov or by contacting the investor relations department of the Company at the following:
